

Safe and Connected Communities

The province's investments in programs, services, and key infrastructure can help connect people and communities to opportunities. Connected communities support innovation and drive a strong, diverse economy.

Budget 2018–19 includes

Community Supports and Connections

- $16.2 million increase in the Disability Support program to help more people with disabilities move from institutions into the community, to enhance respite care, and to fund more complex cases
- $2.1 million to help create eight small options homes and two community options homes, for a total of $4.2 million over two years
- $3 million to double the tax-free poverty reduction credit to $500 through quarterly payments of $125 to eligible Nova Scotians
- $4 million for initiatives under the Blueprint to End Poverty as part of a four-year, $20 million commitment – bringing the two-year total to $6 million
- $3.4 million to fully exempt child support payments from income assistance calculations
- $2.8 million to expand options for children in care and support family members who care for children
- $1.3 million more for the Maintenance Enforcement program, which helps children receive money owed to them – with investments in technology to improve both consistent enforcement and client service
- $2 million to help prevent domestic violence, the first year of a four-year commitment
- $270,000 to support the recently opened Domestic Violence Court in Halifax
- $710,000 more to African Nova Scotian Affairs to fund new programs and initiatives and advance work to address systemic racism and discrimination
- Continuing work to help African Nova Scotians in North Preston, East Preston, Cherrybrook, Lincolntonville, and Sunnyville get land title
- $2 million, which includes an increase of $50,000, to help make small businesses and communities more accessible
- $1.8 million to improve access to courts by making them barrier-free

Affordable Housing

- $12.4 million more to improve Housing Nova Scotia's public housing buildings
- $3 million to offer 400 more rent supplements to low income Nova Scotians, the first year of a three-year commitment to expand the rent supplement program by an additional $9 million annually
- $250,000 to continue supporting first-time home buyers with their down payment

Rural High-Speed Internet

- Outlining an approach in the coming months to ensure progress is made to bring better internet service to communities, leveraging a significant provincial investment made in 2017–18 of an estimated $120 million to help secure private sector, municipal, and federal government investment

Highways, Infrastructure, and Transportation

- $60 million more for a total of $285 million in capital spending on highways, bridges, and roads – which includes $10 million more to improve gravel roads (for a total of $20 million)
- Multi-year investment in projects to twin 100-series highways, including Highway 101 (Three Mile Plains to Falmouth), Highway 103 (Upper Tantallon to Ingramport), and Highway 104 (Sutherlands River to Antigonish)
- $5 million increase to highway maintenance budget to improve safety on roads
- $2.4 million more to expand and support community transportation under SHIFT
- $500,000 for a new community beautification program for main streets and communities
- $1 million in continued funding to expand trails across Nova Scotia