(Section 13 of the Residential Tenancies Act)

What is this form for?

Use this form if you are a landlord or tenant trying to resolve a dispute.

- If you are a landlord applying to end a tenancy for rental arrears and do not wish to attempt mediation or have a hearing held, use Form K.
- If you are a landlord of a land-lease community applying for a rental increase above the guideline amount, use Form M.

How to complete these forms?

Street number and name

Give your full civic address as it appears on the lease.

Check the box that shows whether you are a tenant or a landlord.

Check the consent box if you give your email address.

Against (page F1)

Complete this section with the other party's information.

Street number and name

Give the other party's full civic address and any phone numbers you have for them. Check the box that shows whether the other party is a tenant or a landlord.

Regarding (page F1)

Give the complete address of the place being rented as it appears on the lease. If you do not have a lease, give the full civic address, including the postal code.

Information about the lease (page F2)

If possible, use your lease to complete this information.

Has notice to quit been given?

Notice to Quit tells a tenant when they must leave their rental unit, or a landlord that a tenant is leaving. Notice to Quit may be given using forms C, D, E, F, or G.

Is there a written lease?

If you have a written lease, make a copy and attach it for the Residential Tenancy Officer's records.

What is the term of the lease?

Your lease will show what term the lease was signed for.
If there is no written lease, check month-to-month.

How much is the rent?

Give the current rent, not the amount in the lease, unless there have been no changes to the rent amount.

Did the landlord provide the tenant with a copy of the Act?

A landlord must give a tenant a copy of the Residential Tenancies Act when the tenant starts to rent the unit. If you don't remember, do not check a box.

Was a security deposit paid?

A security deposit must be held in trust and may not be more than ½ of 1 month's rent.

Details of application (pages F3 and F4)

Use this section to explain why you are applying for dispute resolution. At a hearing, only issues that are explained on the application (or in the other party's counter-application) can be discussed. If you need more space than what is provided, use an extra sheet.

There are 2 different sections, 1 for tenants and 1 for landlords, because there are different categories for tenants and landlords. Fill out the appropriate one.
