GUIDE FOR COMPLETION OF FERMENT-ON-PREMISES TRANSFER LICENSE APPLICATION:Front Application Form:

Part A of the application form must be completed by the current license holder. Provide the name and address, check the appropriate box and provide the name of the company, the partnership or the sole proprietor's name.

Provide the license number and check the appropriate box for the type of transfer. If you are unsure, please feel free to contact us for assistance.

The person who signs part A is the current license holder, the person who is authorized to sign on behalf of the corporation or partnership which holds the ferment-on-premises license.

Part B of the application form must be completed by the new license holder or new shareholder.

The Statutory Declaration must be completed by the new owner and notarized by a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner of Oaths.

Documents required for ferment-on-premises license application:

1. Certificate of Incorporation. If the application is on behalf of a company, provide a copy of your Certificate of Incorporation. The company must be registered in Nova Scotia or New Brunswick.
2. Directors', Officers' & Shareholders' Registers. If the application is on behalf of a company, provide a copy of the registers listing all the directors, officers and shareholders (in the Minute Book).
3. Partnership Registration Certificate. If the application is on behalf of a partnership, provide a copy of your Partnership Registration Certificate. The partnership must be registered in Nova Scotia or New Brunswick.
4. Provide a copy of the ferment-on premises-registration issued under the Excise Act (Canada). If you have not received this yet, the application can be submitted; however a copy must be provided before the transfer can be approved.

Premises information:

Please provide the requested information in item 5 and 6 on page 3.

You must submit the "transfer fee" with your application. Cheques are payable to NS Alcohol & Gaming Division. Licensing fees are due every three years; please inquire with the office when the term of license expires.

How long before the license is approved:

Upon receipt of a completed application package, your application will be reviewed by the Executive Director's Office.

For most Ferment-on-Premises Licenses, it may take 2 to 3 weeks before your license is approved.
